Blindman Valley Co-op Shows Small Deficit

Financial Statement Well Received at Association's Annual Meeting at Rimbev; Surplus Fund Is Still Over $6,000

The four retiring members of the Board of Management of the Blindman Valley Co-operative Association were all received to the hall at the annual meeting of the association held in the Community Hall, Rimbev, Thursday of last week. Over two hundred members attended, and showed extreme confidence in the directors and enthusiasm regarding the Pool. A financial statement, which showed a deficit on the year's operations of $54.98, with the general volume of business down for the year to the tune of $40,000, was well received by the members. President R. E. Chown explained the reasons for the drop and the small deficit. Most of the discussion at the meeting centred about the new method of grading hogs—grading them on the hoof, instead of on the hoof.

Mr. Chown dealt with the two systems of grading, and explained that the difference between them was for the most part, in favor of the packer, at the expense of the producer. He defined the difference between old and the new system of grading, disclosing that all hogs were graded at the packing plant after the hogs were killed and dressed. He stated that the Pool sold hogs by both systems, and that all hogs handled through the Pool were sold by the grading system that brought the best price.

A motion was passed authorizing the board of management to sell the hogs they may have fit—either selling them by rail grade or on the hoof. In answer to a question asked by a member, it was stated that the membership of the Pool was 1995, with approximately 1200 active participants in the organization.

Dean Howes Speaks

Dean E. A. Howes, the amateur lawyer of the University of Alberta, addressed the meeting on the problems facing the farm youth of today. He stated that the time had arrived when we must make a thorough study of economics: "There is not enough rural sociology—we need economics better suited to our needs," he said. "Co-operation," the speaker added, "stands for a great deal—it is not a one-sided proposition, but must work both ways to the mutual benefit of all. We must remember that production and marketing are inseparable, and it is important to re-

Family Re-Unions To Be Held Here

One of the closest bonds between Canada and the United States is the fact that in both nations there are very closely related branches of many Old Country families. This is true of the Beckers, or as they are known in the Prairie States, the Bickett family, a Scotch family which settled in the U.S.A. and Canada three generations ago. This was the family name of the mother of Mrs. F. H. Reed of the Experimental Station.

A few years ago Mr. MacBickett of Chicago organized a reunion of the Beckers here in America. This year the re-union will be held at the home of Mrs. F. H. Reed at the Experimental Station, Lacombe. Twenty members of the Bickett family in the United States will drive to Lacombe from widely separated points—Chicago, Kansas City, Cedar Rapids, Omaha, Sioux City, Des Moines and Tulsa. They will arrive June 30 and spend the week-end in the Lacombe district.

Tees Boy Injures Foot in Accident

Accidentally shot in the foot by a shotgun, Lynn Marshall, 13-year-old boy of Tees, was admitted to the Community Hospital, Lacombe, over the weekend. Lynn had hung his cap on a peg upon which the shotgun was also hanging, and as he took his cap from the hook, he accidentally knocked the gun to the floor. The gun discharged, sending several pellets into the boy's foot. No serious damage was done, a small bone only being cracked. K. D. McDougall of Tees brought the boy from his home, half a mile from the village, proper, to Lacombe.

A crust well earned is better than a feast inherited.

Musical Recital Presented in Pavilion Friday

Pupils of Mrs. F. H. Reed, A.T.C.M., Lacombe, and of Miss Anna Reeder, A.T.C.M., Red Deer gave a recital in the Central Alberta Pavilion on Friday evening, June 24, which drew a large attendance of interested relatives and friends. Large baskets of Iris, daisies, and foliage and a mass of peonies provided an attractive background for the performance. Value of the number ranging from the lowest to the A.T.C.M. students were included in the program.

A pleasing feature was the Rhythm Band composed of eight of Miss Reed's younger pupils and conducted by Leah Broderon. Interspersed in the program were solo performances by the pupils of Miss Reed's, which were especially beautiful, the voices showing an admirable quality and range of tone.

During the evening Mrs. Reed was the recipient of a lovely bouquet of flowers and Miss Reed received a handsome gift.

Prizes Presented—At the intermission, Miss Reed presented four of her pupils, who entered her classes last fall and who had joined in a little friendly rivalry, with prizes for their excellent work. In the first class, Leah Broderon, Leah Ponsonby, Anna Arnett, second; Second class, Rowena Wright, first, and Muriel Garries, second.

A Word of Welcome

DESIRE on behalf of the members of the Town Council and the Citizens of Lacombe to extend a very hearty welcome to the Red Deer and Lacombe Calf Clubs and all visitors who will be attending the Annual Show and Sale of the Clubs, to be held in Lacombe on the 2nd of July next. ### Lions' Club of Lacombe Receives Charter at Banquet

Presentation of the charter to the newly formed Lions' Club of Lacombe was made by Dr. A. T. Spanke, Calgary, District Governor of the Lions' International on Thursday night. The present charter made at the Red Deer Club was attended by over 90 members, including 30 from Edmonton, 10 from Calgary and 20 from the Lacombe district. Almost all the members of the newly formed Ponoka club, Gordon Smeltz, president of the Edmonton club, occupied the chair until the charter was received by C. D. Marple, president of the local club.

President C. D. Marple, in accepting the charter from the district governor, pointed out the aims and objectives of the newly formed club here. He stated in part, "that we are organized to help our fellowmen, to promote mutual help and profit, and that our combined influence may be systematized, directed and upheld in the interest of our own community."

"We are free from political entanglements and sectarianism; we are a brotherhood without secret societies; definitely do we aim to practice concretely the Golden Rule. That we will always, conscientiously and loyally, set about to make a better place in which to live and work, and earnestly join hands with all citizens, or groups of citizens, in all worthy undertakings; we are here to serve. To an honest realization of all such aims the Lions' Club does now dedicate itself."

Other prominent visitors included W. H. Wingfield, District Secretary, of Calgary; James D. Wallace, Deputy District Governor, Edmonton; Earl Auten, president of the Ponoka club, and A. R. Hotson of Simeon, Ontario.

A very pleasant dance followed the banquet.

Unity Council Draws Up Declaration of Principles

By T. B. WINDROSS
EDMONTON.—The political spirit settled on the movement for united action in establishing sane, sound, progressive government in Alberta during the last week. The first meeting of the Unity Council (Provisional) under the leadership of John I. McFarland, was held Thursday and Friday.

The council went definitely on record as standing for absolute autonomy for the constituencies in the selection of their candidates for the legislature and the management of their own political affairs. The democratic character of the movement is what a speaker by name of Dr. Sharpe and Frank Danner were honored guests.

It was decided to hold the annual picnic at Ethelton Beach on Wednesday, July 20. A challenge from the Lacombe club invited the Unity Council to attend the meeting, at which Dr. Sharpe and Frank Danner were honored guests.

Welcome the Calf Clubs

RESIDENTS and merchants of Lacombe will host on Saturday of this week when the members of the Lacombe and Red Deer Calf Clubs meet here to attend the annual exhibition and sale of their calves. Children of all ages and from many districts will enter their animals into the judging competitions which precede the sale.

This event is growing in membership and in interest. Last year over 1000 turned out to the sale which was held in Red Deer to look over the livestock fed and cared for by the coming farmers of Central Alberta. The keen interest and the evident pride with which children enter their calves for sale is a prophecy of good omen for the future of the farming communities of the next generation. Many of these young exhibitors have also taken their calves to the larger shows held in Calgary and Edmonton and have carried off many splendid awards.

Lacombe is pleased to play host to the members of the calf clubs and their friends, and it is the sincere wish of every resident here that our visitors' stay will be both pleasant and enjoyable.

A Lesson Learned Too Late

DOWN in Florida the other day a young fellow stood up in the prisoner's dock and heard himself sentenced to the death penalty for the kidnap murder of little Jimmy Cash. There was no air of bravado of the young fellow's face; no air of confidence; no appearance of pride or honesty—just a weary look of defeat. All the confidence, pride and honesty of purpose he had ever possessed had gone from him when he set out on his nefarious scheme. Now, sitting there deplored by almost the whole world even by the lawyer whose miserable duty it was to defend him, his thoughts would doubtless be with a fortune to the nation could they be imbedded in the minds of every young fellow in the land, for those thoughts would tell a story too often only learned by bitter experience.

As he sat there he surely must have thought of what he might have accomplished and to what heights he might have risen had he but used his keen mind to further honest efforts in any of a score of trades and occupations.

"True enough (the must have mused) I might never have risen beyond the level of the average man, but, whatever my position or my financial status, I could have at least owned the respect of all who knew me."

But what he THOUGHT at that moment could never alter the circumstances of the moment. He had committed probably the most despicable actions known to man and must suffer the consequences of a deed which had been done . . . for as a great philosopher once wrote:

"The moving finger writes, and having writ, moves on, nor all thy pity nor all thy tears can hark back to cancel half a line, nor all thy tears wash out a word of it."

Man's Helplessness

MAN has conquered and overcome obstacles and stumbling blocks to progress throughout the centuries—but all the modern inventions, machines and the brains behind them have yet to conquer fires that break out periodically in the timber reserves of our country. At the present time, flames are sweeping through Alberta's great hinterland to the north—destroying immense wealth of our citizens. Crews of men are working night and day in a frantic struggle, endeavoring to overcome a foe that cannot be overcome without rain. Forest rangers admit that, while the firefighters might control the fires to a certain limited degree, only rain can stamp them out.

Man's helplessness in fighting these fires is evident by the twisted and twisted stumps that adorn many of Alberta's and British Columbia's forest reserves. His helplessness to stem these blazes is pitiful, but even more pitiful is his helplessness to eradicate the causes of these fires—for fires are brought on mainly by the carelessness of man himself.

Unexplored and untouched forests are unmapped by the trail of the forest fires—fires come into being on their present scale only with the appearance of man in the forests of the world. Since the advent of so-called civilization into the four corners of the world there has been vast deterioration of the beauties of nature throughout the world, not to mention the material wealth that has been destroyed.

Even with his advances of recent years, man appears insignificant with the power of Nature, that has been destroyed.

It isn't the regular drinking that hurts a man, it's the way fellers have of drinking between drunks.

Through the Eyes of a Country Woman

By BRIDGET

Unity is a much used word these days, overused and misused, in fact. Everywhere we can read that we should become united. Unity of thought, unity of political action, unity of purpose, etc., are all advocated. All of us, I think, will agree that unity is most desirable, but somehow or other, very few of us seem able to practise it. Is it a throwback to primitive man, that no human being seems able to absolutely trust his fellow human? Is it a survival of the age when only the strong and wary could live? Anyway, be it what it may, it is really an indisputable fact, that in most men, a certain distrust of their fellow man is inherent. The manual labourer distrusts the white-collar worker, and vice versa; the business distracts big business, big business distrusts its employees, and so on. It is an ever-repeating vicious circle. One who absolutely trusts, and works unceasingly, for his fellow man is usually misunderstood, and such a one is destined to eventual disillusionment. Unity almost sounds like the teaching of real communism (not the Russian variety, which is certainly not in line with the original teachings of communism); but it appears to embody the highest ideals of man's thought. Russia is not communistic; it has a stern dictatorship than any other nation; but, as yet, does not realize it.

Unity is something which will have to be inculcated by intensive education, and even then, I doubt if it would attain workable proportions. For weeks I have been hearing that the salvation of Alberta, or even of Canada, can only be accomplished through unity. But, is it unity to be unified on one subject only, and to stick uncompromisingly to one's own pet theories? Beliefs of a lifetime cannot be wiped out in a night, just because of a firm, growing belief in one certain aim always persist, and tend to colour our actions, after the immediate and striking need of unity in the present crisis is passed. However, it is time we all gave this subject, and its aims, serious thought.

Democracy is failing, and will fail in Canada, if something is not done very soon to save it. Shortly, if not checked, this Province of Alberta will become a dictator state. The larger school unit is taking all local participation in the school district out of the hands of those most interested. Theoretically, the plan seems good; the vision of equalized taxes must have seemed like a glorious dream to the hard-bit farmer. That vision is slowly fading, and hard facts taking its place. Education is not merely a question of dollars and cents. It must go much further than merely equalizing taxes. How will we farmers, who are still, thank heaven, not in the larger school unit, feel, when we do not have the privilege of meeting annually in the little school house, thereby taking an active part in the policy of guiding our own children's education?

Biennial meetings, attended by one trustee from each school district only, will be the order of the day, and further than that, no financial statement will be issued to the ratepayers. Isn't this a blow to democracy? The gradual gathering together of all school affairs into the hands of one man. The threat to municipalities contained in the so-called 7 per cent Production Tax is another blow to our fast diminishing liberties. Again, the ultimate result will be all powers taken from the people, and vested in a bureaucracy. The Trades and Industry Act, and other attempts at licensing the general population, were further blows at democracy, and have not even achieved their own proclaimed purposes. The threat to the banks was another shaft aimed at civil liberty. If all the banks should close their doors, and we have to use one, autocratically constituted, heaven help Alberta! Banks are a democratic institution, however much some may argue to the contrary. Many other such things are happening in Canada today; we have only to look eastward to Ontario and Quebec to see other pseudo-dictators; and in the latter Province we have the abominable "Padlock law," restraining free speech, free assembly, and the freedom of the press. Speaking of the Quebec "Padlock law," how many of our readers realize that in just eight days after this appears in print the right of the Dominion Government to disallow this infamous infringement of British rights lies? None can say that the Federal Government has not had time to consider this legislation, when they were able to disallow certain Alberta legislation (for which I certainly hold no brief), a few days, and in the case of the "Padlock act," have had it brought to their attention many times in almost a month.

How many more blows can democracy stand? There is no short cut to permanent prosperity, and this wiping out of local powers and civil liberties will certainly not achieve it. British democracy took hundreds of years to erect; and it would seem that those now in power are endeavoring to destroy it. In 1915 the first model constitution was embodied in the famous Magna Carta, and since that many lives have been given in upholding and protecting the rights contained in that document. Have we retrogressed to such an extent that we are going to stand passively by and see successive rapacious chieftains of the really-won liberties? Indifference is the root-cause of our losing our liberties; not sufficient seem to care to get out and do "something about it," until too late. In time we will be so surprised at the predicament in which we shall find ourselves, that any new orator will be in a position to blind us with fine, flashy ideas and promises and lead us even further into a quagmire of hopelessness.

Unity of thought may be the answer to our problems, and it might be able to defeat the enemies of democracy, but it would need a revolution of ideas, a subjugation of old age principles, an abnegation of self, and an unprecedented retreat, which I doubt possible in this age.

Unity Council Draws Up Declaration of Principles

Among the principles of policy chosen by the Unity Council is that the leader of the party in the Legislature should only be selected by the elected members themselves, and not by any political party outside the Legislature.

Declaration of Principles

The general declaration of principles accepted by the delegates is as follows:

"The things which the Government that is, to restore credit, confidence and self-respect to the people of this Province must do, are infinite. In detail it is quite a chore to leave off a piece of paper.

"It must provide for the adjustment of existing private debts on the books of the Government, and the payment of interest on them.

"It must recognize the fact that the payment of taxes is an investment in public service and that such service is strictly limited by the ability of the taxpayer to pay.

"Having this in mind, it is important to make to investors upon the greatest measure of economy, consistent with justice and efficiency in every phase of public activity, including the making of the Legislative Assembly and the Government itself.

"Upon these matters have been

the way will have been prepared for a greater measure of public benefit and service than can be realized in any other way.

"The Provincial Government, while maintaining its rights and fulfilling its responsibilities under the North American Treaty, as far as lies within its power, and within its constitutional limits, should work in cooperation and harmony with the Dominion Government, not only in all the matters herein enumerated, but in all matters which come up for consideration or action, in order to assist in the building up and forming of the unity of Canada as a whole."

In its more detailed statement of policy suggested for constitutions, but not enforced arbitrarily, the council favors substantial reduction in members of the Legislature and a lower sessional indemnity of $1,000 instead of $2,000 received by members of the institution of provincial business methods in administration. It declared that in settlement of the private debt problem, "a moratorium does not solve debt problems, but merely delays solution."

MINING OIL IS GAMBLE; WELL MAY COST UP TO $200,000.

Although the Turner Valley oil field produced $3,000,000 in crude oil last year, and in previous years has produced millions in gasoline and naphtha, more money has been put into it than has ever been taken out. The fact is that may be years before the field as a whole is out of the red.

Just now Turner Valley is the object of great interest, and of the studies about it, it belongs to the "liquid gold" myths relating to oil. These kind of myths continue through the years to be regarded as realities despite all evidence to the contrary.

News of a new well come out with stories that it has a daily flow of 1,000 barrels or more of oil and petroleum products, like "that." They forget that to get the well the producer had to spend $150,000 to $200,000 on a gamble, ergo, not about the wells, which never come in. There are glamorous stories of fortunes won but not a word about those lost.

The situation does not just apply to the Turner Valley oil field alone. It is true of most important fields in North America. A statistician has computed that since 1920, when his firm oil well in Pennsylvania in 1889, the average cost of finding and recovering a barrel of oil has been $1.21, although the average return to the producer has been only $1.21.

It is true that those who combine good luck and good judgment can make a fortune in oil. But the truth also is the oil industry as a whole is operating at a loss.

member that good production is a contribution to good marketing."

The speaker then continued by saying that the youth of today has to solve the problems of tomorrow—they are faced with the problem of having this rural society, and will have to face marketing problems to a degree greater than the farmers of today. "The machine has outrun the people, and a shaking down is being experienced today, and will continue in the next generation; this is another problem challenging our youth today," the speaker concluded.

Other Addresses Given
L. V. Parslow, Calgary representative of the Pool; John Norman, Minister of Agriculture, Department of Agriculture; F. H. Newcombe, district agriculturist, Red Deer, and Charles Lyndon, newly appointed Provincial Livestock Commissioner, all addressed the meeting on pertinent topics.

The retiring directors in four divisions, all selected by the meeting, were: E. C. Crozier, LaFerche; A. B. Haastad, Bentley; F. J. Smith, Rimby, and A. Mc-Donald, Thorby.

Financial Statement

The financial statement approved by the meeting showed a total of 23,181 head of hogs had been handled by the pool during the year ending May 31, 1938, as compared with 27,288 for the year 1936-37. The gross returns for the year 1937-38 totalled at $394,929.94, as compared with $419,169.29 for the preceding year. No sheep were handled during the year, and a loss of $15,000 in cattle business also evident. President R. E. Chown, however, pointed out that, while the volume had dropped considerably, the average price on hogs was almost $1.00 higher during the current year than in previous years.

The speaker in this volume of business was not looked upon as serious by the directors, attributed it as was to the increased price on grain. "Many farmers found it more profitable to sell their grain as grain, instead of feeding hogs," Mr. Chown pointed out.

The president, in his report, said that while a deficit of $54.98 had been experienced during the past year, the Pool was still in a strong financial position, with a surplus account of $6,100.92.

Red Deer Fair July 7-8-9

Red Deer's annual Fair is the big event for Central Alberta. For the 48th annual Fair no effort has been spared to make it even more interesting than its predecessors. The cream of Alberta livestock and seven outside horse shows, as well as showmen from the farm boys' and girls' camps, which have been so successful in the past two years, will again be in operation. This year the entertainment will be better than ever. The big attraction in front of the grandstand will be the famous Asagian Hippodrome Troop of 15 people and 24 head of horses.

On the Midway, the Conklin shows will provide the entertainment. This is the same management that has shown in Red Deer for many years. New features, new rides, new acts, new scenery will all combine to make the 1938 Midway the best yet.

Races and other added attractions will give added zip to the three days of entertainment at Red Deer on July 7, 8 and 9.

Iowalta

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Needcraft Club met at the home of Mrs. J. Hubbard on Thursday, June 23. There was a good attendance and everyone enjoyed the evening.

Gull Lake

(From Our Own Correspondent)

GULL LAKE.—Cottages at the lake are in demand; while many old-timers have returned to their favorite haunts.

Sunday found a large crowd at the beaches, the water being excellent. There were three softball games. The Woodmen team of Iowalta and Bentley took a beating from Iowalta. With more practice, there should be some peppy ball before long.

Several schools have plans for a picnic and sports at Ebeling's Beach.

The new sidewalk and improved roads will be appreciated.

The alterations to the U.G.G. elevator at Aspen Beach are completed. The new scale and extra width will make it possible to handle any size of load we desire.

This week we offer our best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Noel (Bud) Woody. Mrs. Woody was formerly Miss Peggy Gibson of Bentley. Mr. and Mrs. Woody will live on the groom's farm in the Woody Nook district.

Gravelin Finished

The gravel road is completed in the school corner, dividing the road two coats in some places.

The new triangular turn at the highway will make for more safety. E. C. Moore kindly donated a piece of land that this might be made possible. It required some work to complete the project, which was taken in the supervision of Ed. Hansen. The "hog's back" was lowered considerably, too, reducing the possibility of collision.

Sam Leiske surprised the neighbors recently when he drove home his new coupe.

Mrs. Buckwalter and daughter Ethel, with the help of Mr. Schultz are looking after the Warcham farm during June and July.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Trimble were recent visitors in Edmonton.
